

Club Membership Application

Would you like to influence our organisation and help it succeed?

Whether you are new to our club or an existing supporter, we really appreciate and value your involvement with Club Muso Mid North Coast. If you are interested in seeing the organisation succeed in its aims, please consider signing up as a Club member.

Type of Memberships

Standard Club Member: All musicians, industry professionals and music supporters in the Mid North Coast area are eligible to become a 'Club Member' and will receive all the associated benefits, such as promotion, training opportunities, paid work opportunities, special events, members discounts and access to subsidised services such as equipment hire or rehearsal spaces etc.

Official Financial Member: Becoming an 'Official / Financial Member', is a simple way for you as an individual to become a little more involved. You will have a number of important rights, including being able to vote on resolutions at the Annual General Meeting (in person, or by post) and on the selection of members of the Board. You must already be a club member to apply for this level of membership and have your application endorsed/accepted by the board.

When a not for profit organisations members are active in helping to shape the agenda and objectives of the club, the Trustee body is refreshed and its accountability to its members is improved. The money raised through membership is used to help with our administration costs.

We hope you will join us to help live music thrive in the Mid North Coast!
